

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

The Misses Joergers were in Cincinnati yesterday.

Colonel W. W. Ball was a visitor on 'Change at Cincinnati yesterday.

Mrs. A. M. Bridges has returned from a pleasant visit to her son at Portsmouth.

Colonel and Mrs. S. N. Meyer arrived home yesterday from a few days visit in Cincinnati.

Colonel Joseph I. Dorsey of Flemingsburg was in the city yesterday and called on THE LEDGER.

Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver of Newport is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Oldham of West Fourth street.

Mr. John Duley, one of the Representatives to the Grand Lodge at Frankfort, returned home last night.

Mrs. G. W. Busby of Lebanon, Ind., will arrive today to visit her sisters, Mrs. J. D. Muse and Miss Sophia Williams.

Mr. Lucian Goodman of Fleming county, after a visit to his sister, Mrs. J. W. Foxworthy of East Third street, returned home today.

Mr. Enoch B. Burns, an old veteran of the late war who served in the Sixteenth Kentucky, was in Maysville yesterday shaking hands with his old comrades.

Mr. George Blehn, one of the proprietors of The Winchester Democrat, returned home yesterday. He had been here in attendance on the Donovan-Daniels nuptials.

Covington Commonwealth.—Mrs. Chas. Brown, Lexington, with her daughter, Miss Cora, was at the Latonia Hotel for a few days en route to place Miss Cora again in the Convent at Maysville.

Judge J. C. Adams of Franklin, Simpson county, formerly a resident of this city and the first County Attorney of Mason county under the old Constitution, is in the city visiting friends. He has been away from this city since 1853, and is loud in his praises of our beautiful little county seat.

Mr. George W. Rogers is confined to his home by illness.

The Kentucky Bankers' Association began its fifth annual meeting in Louisville yesterday.

Mr. B. W. Blair of Cincinnati was the center of attraction for the Bullionists at the Courthouse last night.

The Flemingsburg Gazette has passed its 16th milestone, and it isn't ashamed to announce it. It's a pretty lively paper, too.

Miss Minnie Reynolds, daughter of Dr. J. J. Reynolds of Flemingsburg, fell while at play Saturday and broke one of her arms.

Mr. Henry Milton Potts and Miss Anna Varden King, both of Carlisle, will marry at the Methodist Church in that city next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

A Portsmouth couple went to Cincinnati to get married, but as the groom only had 90 cents the Clerk told him he had better postpone matters, which he did.

Mr. Charles D. Pearce was presented by his wife with a ten-pound boy Tuesday. Naturally Mr. Pearce is a very happy man, and is receiving congratulations from his numerous friends.

The funeral of "Uncle" Sam Smith, whose death was noted in these columns yesterday, will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bethel Baptist Church, services being conducted by Rev. William Alford.

Lucile, Joseph and Garfield Crawford, who were tried in the Fleming Circuit Court last week charged with killing Charles Niece at Sugar Tree Run in Fleming county some four or five months ago, were all acquitted.

Robert McDonald is under guard to appear at Flemingsburg next Monday to answer to the charge of killing Ed Breen. Most likely he will be dismissed, as the dying man's request was that he be not prosecuted. McDonald feels very bad over the killing, as both men had been close friends up to the time of the affair.

Thomas Dudley Tiley of Madison county and Miss Louisa Jayne Warren of Lexington were married last Thursday. Mr. Tiley will be remembered as the gentlemanly Express Messenger on the morning L. and N. train several years ago, and has many friends in this city who wish him all the happiness that goes with the ceremony.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens will take place this afternoon from the residence of her son, Mr. James Stephens, services by the Rev. John S. Hays, D.D. Mrs. Stephens was one of this city's most respected ladies, and as a consistent Christian and Church member she had but few equals. This venerable lady will be missed, not only by her immediate family but by a wide circle of friends.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWIL WARMER
SPOT.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'Twill
be;
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Fresh Bulk and Can Oysters received daily at Martin Bros.

Taylor Bros. at Washington are selling 20 pounds granulated sugar for $1, and 6 pounds Arbuckle's coffee for $1 15.

For a full assortment of Lime Fruit Tablets call at Ray's Drugstore next door to Postoffice. Telephone number 91.

Bargains in Sterling Silver Spoons and Forks; also in Rogers & Bro.'s 1847 Knives, Forks and Spoons. Never before have these goods been sold as cheap as P. J. Murphy the Jeweler is offering them.

Dr. H. M. Scudder is engaged in a protracted meeting at Augusta.

The Flemingsburg brass band has received a new set of instruments, and will get new uniforms later on.

Car No. 3 of the United States Fish Commission passed East on the C. and O. Tuesday. Some time ago the question of charging for hauling these cars came up before the Central Passenger Committee, but C. B. Ryan of the C. and O., defeated the proposition by arguing that lines sold many tickets to fishermen who fished in streams stocked free by the Government.

The examination of the graduate nurses of the Cincinnati Hospital took place last week, and Miss Anna, daughter of Mrs. Dr. Campbell of Paris, carried off first honors, and received the medal in a class of 60. This is quite a compliment to Miss Campbell, as the school requires a high educational grade to obtain admittance, and there were a great many bright girls from all over the United States.

YESTERDAY'S DEBATE.

It Proved That Thomas Was Badly Scared By Pugh.

Yesterday was joint debate day at the Courthouse in this city between Hon. Sam J. Pugh, Republican Congressman from this District and candidate for reelection, and Mr. W. LaRue Thomas, the Bullionist candidate for Congress.

The meeting had been well advertised by both parties, and as a natural consequence the old Temple of Justice was packed by a solid mass of humanity long before the appointed hour for the debate to begin.

And just here let us not forget to state that the enthusiasm was all one-sided—and it wasn't on the Popocratic side, either.

At about 2 o'clock Mr. Thomas entered the house and walked up the aisle to the front, and the applause was so great that you could almost hear a tree bark.

A few moments later Mr. Pugh entered with Mr. A. M. J. Cochran and Mr. Clarence Mathews, and for several seconds the cheers that went up from the throats of nearly three fourths of the audience told too plainly which one was to go to Washington to represent the Ninth Congressional District in the Fifty-fifth Congress of the United States.

At 2:10 County Chairman John W. Alexander rapped for order and introduced Mr. Thomas, who, by the arrangement agreed upon by the two jointers, had the first go at this place, as Hon. Pugh opened and closed the day before at Augusta.

Mr. Thomas began by telling the audience that he and Judge Pugh had been friends before the campaign had opened, had been friends up to the time they were made the standard-bearers of their respective parties, have been friends throughout the entire canvass up to the present time, were friends now and would continue to be friends after the campaign was over; then he jollied up the Bullionists awhile, and then closed as he opened—by telling of the great love that he had for Mr. Pugh.

Then for one hour and fifteen minutes Congressman Pugh made such a convincing argument for Sound Money and Protection to American industries that no one need err in his decision as to the duty he not only owes to his District, but to the Nation. His argument throughout was brim full of telling points, and the applause he received told plainly that his talk was appreciated by the major portion of the immense crowd.

Then Mr. Thomas had fifteen minutes to close, and it took just fifteen minutes for him to get personal and say mean things to Mr. Pugh, which didn't do him any good.

It was a regular field day for McKinley, Hobart, Pugh and Sound Money, as the returns from Maysville and Mason county in November will show.

If Troubled With Rheumatism Read This.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 16th, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public.

John G. Brooks, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main St.

ALSO READ THIS.

MECHANICSVILLE, St. Mary County, Md.—I sold a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm to a man who had been suffering with rheumatism for several years. It made him a well man. A. J. McGill. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Greatest of All!

On Wednesday, November 4th, THE LEDGER will issue an 8-page-all-home-print edition. It will contain the fullest election returns, and in its "glorification" over the triumph of McKinley and Honest Dollars it will be a perfect peach.

In fact, it will be the greatest paper ever gotten out in Maysville.

Not less than 5,000 copies will be issued, and they will have at least 25,000 readers.

Orders for advertising space should be sent in early, in order to get choice of position.

If any of our Free silver friends are looking for a soft snap we submit this: We will insert any sized advertisement you want, FREE IF BRYAN IS ELECTED, but DOUBLE THE REGULAR PRICE IF McKINLEY IS ELECTED. Come right along, gentlemen!

INDIGNANT.

The Colored People Condemn The Bulletin.

Yesterday's Bulletin contained an article and a letter said to have been written by a colored school-teacher of this city, and we take a few paragraphs from the article, but the fact that the letter has been condemned by the better class of our colored people compels us to have nothing to do with it.

Some of Maysville's colored citizens are not feeling any too good over the way they were treated at the Opera-house last Friday night when Hon. John W. Yerkes spoke here.

When the Pastor of Scott Chapel attempted to enter the house, a policeman told him he would have to wait until the clubs arrived. Just as the colored Pastor stepped back, a white Democrat approached and was admitted.

On entering, the Democrat, who had noticed the turning back of the Preacher, found three or four hundred people already in the house.

Later on a party of the colored teachers of the city with their company entered the house, and were told they "must go to the gallery or go home."

The above has made the colored people indignant, as there is not a word of truth in it so far as the teachers are concerned, as Prof. Spurgeon and his able corps all had seats in the dress circle, as they will testify.

If any colored women were told that they either "had to go to the gallery or home," it was their own fault, as they were warned not to stay out upon the street and wait for the parade and then expect a seat down stairs, as the doors were opened at 7 o'clock.

Miss Julia Young writes as follows about the affair, and we will allow the people to judge who is right, as she doesn't have to be paid to sign her name to the article:

Editor Public Ledger: Permit me to say, in regard to the article which appeared in The Bulletin of yesterday, that I was one of a party of colored teachers who visited the Opera-house last Friday night, and we of that party met with no discrimination whatever. The seats in the parquet, dress circle and all parts of the house were occupied by both white and colored and I did not observe the slightest friction.

I believe the men of our race hold the rights of their women as sacred as that of any race on the globe, and will resent an insult to them with as much vigor and manhood as any other race; but in this day of small things, when lying and flattery are at a premium, it is well to know both sides of a question before committing any rash acts.

Some miserably mean little soul, who can't see beyond the end of his nose, hopes to stir up strife in the ranks of the Republican party by publishing anonymous communications in The Bulletin. But I am glad to say that the Negro of Maysville will, to a man, cast his vote for McKinley, Sound Money and Protection; not from any mistaken sense of gratitude to the Republican party, nor because "Abe Linken" freed him, but because the Republican party now, as in the past, advocates those principles which are synonymous with good Government and equal rights to all men, regardless of race and previous condition.

The Republican party is not responsible for what a fop of an usher may have said; and no dispassionate thinker would hold it so. The loyalty of the Republican party to the Negro cannot be questioned.

I presume our anonymous friend does not know that sex is no barrier to her stamping the state for the Democrats. She can take her own sweet way.

Superintendent J. F. Ellison wires from Cincinnati that the steamer Hudson will pass up tonight for Pittsburgh and the Keystone State follows Saturday night. There is good boating stage now in the river.

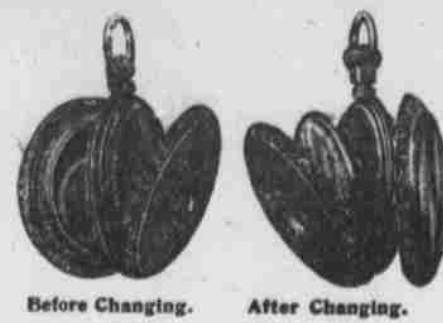

Samuel Ramey, colored, will preach at the Plymouth Baptist Church tonight on the subject "Seven Steps to Hell." Everybody invited. This is the colored man who has been preaching on the street for the past several days.

AUSTRALIAN WILD GIRL.

Wonderful Specimen of Nature Exhibited at 210 Market Street.

This is the same Wild Girl that is viewed by more people and gives more satisfaction than any other curiosity ever placed before the public. She is a fair specimen of the Australian Bushmen, a race of people now nearly extinct. The price of admission charged is nothing compared with the knowledge gained by seeing this curious human being.

Why is it that one man is old and decrepit at 45 and another hale and hearty at 90? It depends on the care he takes of himself. Often a man's body gets out of repair; the trouble grows until it lays him out in bed. Whenever a man feels that he is not as well as he ought to be, whenever he is listless, without energy and without vitality, whenever he finds that he is losing weight and that his ordinary work gives him undue fatigue, he needs Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If he keeps on working with his liver inactive and his blood impure—he keeps his nerves and his body under a constant nervous strain. He will not be hearty when he is old. The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures many so-called diseases because nearly all illness springs from the same thing—bad digestion and consequent impure blood. The "Discovery" makes the appetite good, the digestion strong, assimilation easy, and the blood rich and pure.

Perhaps You Have

An old-fashioned key-winding watch that belonged to your father—perhaps your grandfather—and would like to wear it but for the annoyance of searching for a key every time you want to wind it.

I can reconstruct it so that you can preserve the old watch with all its associations and at the same time enjoy the use of a modern stem-winding watch.

IN GREENUP COUNTY.

The "Boy Orator From Maysville" Doing All the Talking.

Hon. Will T. Cole, son of Judge A. E. Cole of this city, who went from Maysville to Greenup county several years ago to seek fame and fortune, has at last secured the former and is now close on the heels of the latter.

Will's many friends in this city will be glad to know of his success, but are sorry to see him wasting so much valuable wind and time championing the Free-silver cause.

From the way The Eastern Kentucky Democrat talks we are led to believe that he is the only one in that whole county who has the nerve to talk up such a delusion, but when it is known that he is from Maysville—well, that's enough.

We publish below a few paragraphs from the above-named paper to show what Hon. W. T. is doing for the wrong side:

Last Tuesday evening W. T. Cole spoke at Woodland Schoolhouse, but owing to the disagreeable state of the weather the audience was not very large. He was introduced by J. B. Mackay, and made an intelligent talk on the money question. Mr. Cole is by long odds the peer of any man on the stump in Greenup county, and is doing the silver cause much good by his able discussion of the facts connected with it.

W. T. Cole addressed the Bryan, Sewall and Thomas Club at Old Steam last Wednesday evening, sixty-eight members and visitors being present. He made a masterly argument in favor of the Chicago platform and especially in favor of the free coinage of silver, which is the paramount issue in this campaign.

Last Thursday evening W. T. Cole filled his appointment at Oak Grove, and was met by a large audience, and all were pleased with his effort. At 7 o'clock he was introduced by Arthur Hicks, and for two hours claimed and received the undivided attention of the audience. The way in which Mr. Cole handles the leading issues of the campaign might well be imitated by older speakers.

At Limeville last Friday night W. T. Cole was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience, which he addressed in his usual masterly style, they paying good attention to him for one hour and a half.

On Saturday night W. T. Cole addressed the citizens of Coal Branch at Heineman's Chapel. A large audience greeted him. The house would not hold one-half the people. Mr. Cole delivered an able address, which was well received by the people.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

$100—Reward—$100.
The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHERNEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.
